

Virtual Visits for health insurance plans through work

Talk with a provider using your smartphone, tablet or computer

Virtual Visits – also known as telehealth — is a real time, online visit with a provider. Virtual visits are an additional way to see a provider when an in-person visit may not be accessible or convenient.

If you get your health insurance through work, Virtual Visits may be available to you for a v

-
